NEW YORK, May 14, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- First Independence Corp, with its subsidiary, The Codesmart™ Group, Inc. (OTCQB:FICF) (collectively, "Codesmart™"), a newly publicly traded ICD-10 education and solutions group that offers CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY, its on-line training solution and customizable training solutions, announces today that its CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY programs of study are now eligible for Continuing Education Units ("CEU") for existing coders, as certified by the two major certification bodies for medical coding, the Association of Professional Coders ("APPC") and the American Health Information Management Association ("AHIMA").

"With the two best recognized licensing organizations offering CEU credit, which medical coder members are required to obtain on a yearly basis in order to maintain their certifications, this is an acknowledgement that CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY may be considered the "Gold Standard" of ICD-10 education," said Ira Shapiro, Chairman and CEO of Codesmart™. "Our methodology is integrated and flexible and it allows for any kind of adult learner to succeed in learning this information in any of our programs of study whether they are physicians, nurses, medical coders, or a new student looking to embark on a career in medical coding."

ICD-10, or the tenth revision of the International Classification of Diseases is a World Health Organization-approved designation of the aspects of disease treatment that include categories of diseases and treatment modalities for them, broken down into more than 141,000 designations. The previous ICD had only 17,000 codes, diagnoses and procedures. The United States is among the last countries in the world to adopt these standards, but the Department of Health and Human Services has mandated that all medical practices, hospitals and other medical record keeping organization be trained and ICD-10 compliant by October 1, 2014. This is essential as the Center for Medicare and Medicaid services will also be adopting the ICD-10 standard and will require proper medical coding in order to provide reimbursement.

AAPC was founded in 1988 to provide education and professional certification to physician-based medical coders and to elevate the standards of medical coding by providing student training, certification, ongoing education, networking, and job opportunities. Since then, AAPC has expanded beyond coding to include training and credentials in documentation and coding audits, regulatory compliance, and physician practice management. Currently, AAPC has a membership base of 121,000 worldwide, of which more than 90,000 are certified.

AAPC credentialed coders have proven mastery of all code sets, evaluation and management principles, and documentation guidelines. CPC's and other AAPC credentialed coders represent the best in outpatient coding.

Celebrating its 85th anniversary this year, the AHIMA represents more than 67,000 educated health information management professionals in the United States and around the world. AHIMA is committed to promoting and advocating for high quality research, best practices and effective standards in health information and to actively contributing to the development and advancement of health information professionals worldwide. ICD-10

ICD-10, or the tenth revision of the International Classification of Diseases is a World Health Organization-approved designation of the aspects of disease treatment that include categories of diseases and treatment modalities for them, broken down in to more than 141,000 designations. The previous ICD had only 17,000 codes, diagnoses and procedures. The United States is among the last countries in the world to adopt these standards, but the Department of Health and Human Services has mandated that all medical practices, hospitals and other medical record keeping organization be trained and ICD-10 compliant by October 1, 2014. This is essential as the Center for Medicare and Medicaid services will also be adopting the ICD-10 standard and will require proper medical coding in order to provide reimbursement.

CodeSmart Holdings Announces BUYINS.NET SqueezeTrigger Report

August 15, 2013 08:30 ET | Source: The Codesmart Group, Inc.

- Approximately 1.97 Million Shares Shorted Since May 2013
- Short Squeeze Expected Above $5.01 SqueezeTrigger Price

NEW YORK, Aug. 15, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- BUYINS.NET, <http://www.buyins.net>, a leading provider of Regulation SHO compliance monitoring, short sale trading statistics and market integrity surveillance, has initiated coverage on CodeSmart Holdings (OTCBB:ITEN) after releasing the latest short sale data through August 13, 2013. The total aggregate number of shares shorted since May 2013 is approximately 1.97 million shares. Approximately 46.88% of daily trading volume is short selling. The SqueezeTrigger price for all ITEN shares shorted is $5.01. A short squeeze is expected to begin when stock closes above its $5.01 SqueezeTrigger price.

Friction Factor calculates if a fair market is being made in the shares of ITEN. 41% of the previous 29 trading days have been positive or bullish-biased and 59% have been negative or bearish-biased.

Regulation SHO requires bona-fide market-making activities to include making purchases and sales in roughly comparable amounts. The Commission has stated that bona-fide market-making DOES NOT include activity that is related to speculative selling strategies or investment purposes of the broker-dealer and is disproportionate to the usual market making patterns or practices of the broker-dealer in that security. Likewise, where a market-maker posts continually at or near the best offer, but does not also post at or near the best bid, the market-maker's activities would not generally qualify as bona-fide market-making. Moreover, a market-maker that continually executes short sales away from its posted quotes would generally not be considered to be engaging in bona-fide market-making.

BUYINS.NET monitors ITEN market-makers daily for compliance with Fair Market-Making Requirements.

"One of the biggest challenges healthcare practices face today is the potential loss of revenue that comes with not being ICD-10 compliant by the October 2014 deadline. The CODESMART™ Group has developed a best practices approach to training current coders in ICD-10 that is unparalleled in the industry," said Chris Amandola, president of Millennium HealthCare, Inc. "We look forward to demonstrating the value of their methodology to the market, and helping as many practices as possible to become ICD-10 compliant."

About ICD-10

ICD-10, or the tenth revision of the International Classification of Diseases is a World Health Organization-approved designation of the aspects of disease treatment that include categories of diseases and treatment modalities for them, broken down into more than 141,000 designations. The previous ICD had only 17,000 codes, diagnoses and procedures. The United States is among the last countries in the world to adopt these standards, but the Department of Health and Human Services has mandated that all medical practices, hospitals and other medical record keeping organization be trained and ICD-10 compliant by October 1, 2014. This is essential as the Center for Medicare and Medicaid services will also be adopting the ICD-10 standard and will require proper medical coding in order to provide reimbursement.

CodeSmart(TM) Holdings, Inc. Issues Letter to Shareholders

August 26, 2013 13:00 ET | Source: The Codesmart Group, Inc.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CodeSmart™ Holdings, Inc. (OTCQB:ITEN), with its subsidiary, The CODESMART™ Group, Inc. (collectively, "CODESMART"), a premier ICD-10 education and solutions group that offers CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY, its on-line education solution and customizable training solutions, issues the following letter to shareholders:

To: CODESMART Holdings, Inc. (ITEN) Shareholders
From: Ira Shapiro, Chairman & CEO

Dear Shareholders:

First of all, I want to thank all of you for being investors in CODESMART and demonstrating your belief in our mission by becoming part of the CODESMART family. As many people know by now, ICD-10 presents a challenge that the healthcare industry must face as it is required for all covered U.S. health entities by October 1, 2014. In fact, it is often repeated that industry analysts believe that ICD-10 will exceed Y2K with respect to cost and impact.¹ All healthcare providers and payers will be required to code utilizing the ICD-10 system of coding to replace ICD-9 which was developed in the 1970s and was constrained by the technology and knowledge of the time. ICD-10 expands the number of codes from approximately 14,000 to 76,000 and proper coding requires knowledge of biology, anatomy chemistry and other subjects totaling approximately 900 hours of training for new coders, approximately 250 hours of training for existing coders and approximately 10 hours of training for clinicians.

It has been an exciting start since we went public. While we are young as a public company, we have been three years in the making working with Florida International University to develop and deliver our ICD-10 curriculum and training. Already, CODESMART:

- has been endorsed by AMERINET as the premier provider of ICD-10 services; and
- has reached agreement with 70 accredited colleges and universities to white label the CODESMART UNIVERSITY® curriculum; and
- is the featured solution according to the ICD-10 PlayBook of Health Information Management Systems Society ("HIMMS"), the largest national healthcare association.

We have established a footprint in the industry and a distribution for sales that we believe will support our sales and earnings forecasts. Supporting our seasoned management team, CODESMART is set to commence a direct marketing campaign through My Data Guru and The College Network, on September 4, 2013. We anticipate that this can result in an average of 1,500 to 2,000 student leads per month. Equally important, each of these partners provides an enrollment function for closing the leads and registering students. The College Network also has provided CODESMART and its students an option to finance their tuition over time to broaden our potential student base. Both of these organizations have a very successful track record in helping generate hundreds of new students monthly for other major on-line universities over the past decade. We believe that CODESMART's new coder program has no equal in the market today.

Revenue Development

As I write this letter to you, some very exciting new things are taking place as it relates to revenue growth. We are now starting to feel the realization by providers that they will have to begin the transition to ICD-10 over the next few years and that this must happen now. According to Forbes Magazine and Ernst & Young, the opportunity is great because only 5% of physicians have started their ICD-10 training. Most hospitals and other healthcare facilities are very behind the curve as well. This is resulting in new contracts from providers for CODESMART and that means revenue begins to accelerate now. Our distribution channels are beginning to produce, and specifically, two of our major partners: Amerinet and Ciracet, are both very active and utilizing their large sales teams to promote CODESMART nationally. Just as an example, Amerinet already has produced over 30 letters of commitment from member healthcare facilities for utilization of CODESMART services.

If we continue on the track we are on, I believe we will achieve our revenue and profit goals that were previously disclosed for 2013 and beyond. We believe we have access to a large market of potential students which we estimate to be over 40 million people looking for careers at any given time. The challenge now will be for us to properly nurture the distribution relationships we currently have in place and making sure we continue to create a market presence and industry brand leadership as the superior education program in ICD-10 that we truly are.

The CODESMART team and I sincerely thank all of you for your support and we are looking forward to a very exciting and successful future together.

Best Regards,

Ira Shapiro
Chairman & CEO

NEW YORK, Oct. 16, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CodeSmart Holdings, Inc. (OTCQB:ITEN), with its subsidiary, The CODESMART™ Group, Inc. (collectively, "CODESMART"), a premier ICD-10 education and solutions group that offers CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY, its on-line education solution and customizable training solutions, announced today that it will be co-sponsoring a free information session for physician practices, hospitals and other healthcare professionals on how to ensure a smooth transition to the federally mandated ICD-10 medical coding system on Wednesday, October 23, 2013, at 8:00 AM. The seminar will be held at Ramapo College of New Jersey in Mahwah, New Jersey.

"While it is not directly connected to the Affordable Care Act, a fluid change to ICD-10 for businesses that require medical coding is all that more important as an additional 40 million new entries will enter into the healthcare system in January," said Ira Shapiro, Chairman and CEO of CODESMART™. "We hope that this seminar will help medical practices in New Jersey to better understand the requirements of ICD-10, and how to approach getting their coders and physicians up to speed and ready for the transition. We also hope the seminar will help them to understand the unique opportunities that ICD-10 will provide in terms of job creation, and economic growth not only for New Jersey, but for the entire nation."

Online registration for the free informational seminar is required. Please visit: www.ramapo.edu/cipl/icd-10 or call the Ramapo College Center for Innovative and Professional Learning at (201) 684-7370.

About ICD-10

ICD-10, or the tenth revision of the International Classification of Diseases, is a World Health Organization-approved designation of the aspects of disease treatment that include categories of diseases and related treatment modalities. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has mandated that all medical practices, hospitals and other medical record keeping organizations be ICD-10 compliant by October 1, 2014. Training in ICD-10 to be in compliance of the mandate is also essential to insurance carriers for providing reimbursement, including the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services. Therefore, there is an immediate need for ICD-10 training for new and existing physicians, clinicians, coders, hospital executives, and other personnel involved in patient care and health records.

CodeSmart(TM) Group Introduces Affordable, Turn-Key ICD-10 Transition Package for Physician Practices

Package Designed to be Non-Disruptive to Revenue Cycle

October 31, 2013 08:40 ET | Source: The Codesmart Group, Inc.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CodeSmart Holdings, Inc. (OTCQB:ITEN), with its subsidiary, The CODESMART™ Group, Inc. (collectively, "CodeSmart™"), a premier ICD-10 education and solutions group that offers CODESMART™ UNIVERSITY, its on-line education solution and customizable training solutions, announces today the national rollout of its new, streamlined, turn-key, ICD-10 transition package for physician practices. CodeSmart™ has already begun to reach out to its physician networks to introduce the new product, which is designed to be both affordable and complete.

A statement was made by the American Medical Association estimated that depending upon the size of the practice, the average cost for implementing an ICD-10 transition could range from $65,000 to $150,000. "CodeSmart™'s turn-key transition program was designed to streamline the transition using best practices at a fraction of the national average," said Ira Shapiro, CEO of CodeSmart™.

The product, which is comprised of four phases, is designed to evaluate a physician practice on its ICD-10 readiness, as well as to bring the practice up to compliance, including the offer of outsourced ICD-10 coding with CodeSmart™'s certified coders. The product is designed to ensure uninterrupted revenue cycle and provide the easiest approach to ensuring a smooth transition to ICD-10, which will become required for reimbursement on October 1, 2014. In addition, the package offers business management solutions offered through CodeSmart™'s partner, Avisena, which helps decrease denials, maximize reimbursements, reduce account receivable balances, and increase overall visibility and control over physician practice revenue.

"Physician practices cite a number of reasons for not concentrating on ICD-10 readiness, ranging from a lack of time and resources to the anticipation that the ICD-10 deadline will be moved again," continued Mr. Shapiro. "However, it has been made clear that the deadline will not be postponed, so CodeSmart™ has developed a seamless transition product that begins with a review of current practices, followed by an easy to follow training program and concluded by a final evaluation to allow physician practices to meet the ICD-10 standards without sacrificing current workflow or revenue cycle."

CodeSmart™'s new physician product is equally equipped to accommodate large multi-office practices and small, rural healthcare facilities.

About ICD-10

ICD-10, or the tenth revision of the International Classification of Diseases is a World Health Organization-approved designation of the aspects of disease treatment that include categories of diseases and treatment modalities for them, broken down in to more than 141,000 designations. The previous ICD had only 17,000 codes, diagnoses and procedures. The United States is among the last countries in the world to adopt these standards, but the Department of Health and Human Services has mandated that all medical practices, hospitals and other medical record keeping organization be trained and ICD-10 compliant by October 1, 2014. This is essential as the Center for Medicare and Medicaid services will also be adopting the ICD-10 standard and will require proper medical coding in order to provide reimbursement.
